Sheriff's Homicide Detectives are continuing their investigating into the circumstances surrounding a deputy-involved shooting, which occurred at the intersection of Daybreak Drive and Morningside Court, Azusa.

Detectives have learned that an off-duty deputy, assigned to West Hollywood Station, was driving through a condominium complex, when he observed two individuals (male and female adult) near some parked cars acting suspiciously. The deputy pulled up in his vehicle, identified himself as a deputy sheriff, and asked what they were doing in the area.

The male suspect immediately reached for his waistband. Fearing the suspect was arming himself, the deputy fired one round from his duty weapon, striking the suspect.

The suspect was pronounced dead at the scene. The female was detained at the scene, and is being interviewed by homicide investigators.

No weapon was immediately located.

The deputy was not injured.
